

The loss of any beloved pet has a drastic impact on our lives and causes extreme anguish and sorrow.

The bond between people and their pets is so much stronger than we are often willing to admit and the loss of this unconditional love can be devastating - there is no way around it, we can only work through it.

There is no time scale for bereavement and you need to allow yourself to come to terms with natural steps of loss for this pet who made your life wonderful in so many ways: denial, disbelief, anger, guilt and finally (with time) acceptance.

Even though it may seem impossible, for each passing day, your grief will eventually subside.
